Collin's strength however is on the defensive end as he has great closing speed and contests shots well on the perimeter and the interior with opponents shooting 22.2% from the field on jump shots (10/45) (88th percentile) and 40.7% at the rim (11/27) (72th percentile) when guarded by him this season.

Player Profile

Toa Hollenbeck (#8)

Guard, 6'3, Jr

Key Stats

- 57.1% FG% as a P&R Ball Handler (16/28) (43 possessions) (95th percentile)
- 58.8% FG% in transition (20/34) (48 possessions) (79th percentile)
- 22.9% FG% on spot-ups (8/35) (44 possessions) (33rd percentile)
- 33.3% Defensive FG% when guarding spot-ups (10/30) (35 possessions) (55th percentile)

Toa is the teams leading scorer averaging 18.0 PPG. He is most dangerous as the P&R Ball Handeler and in transition with a FG% of 57.1% as the P&R Ball Handler (16/28) (43 possessions) (95th percentile) and 58.8% in transition (20/34) (48 possessions) (79th percentile). His jumper off the dribble is also solid as he is shooting 40.0% this season on Dribble Jumpers (12/30) (72th percentile). Try and force him to the 3 point line when guarding him as he does like to shoot the 3 ball but it is his lowest percentage shot shooting 32.3% on the season from downtown (20/62). Defensively Toa is better at guarding people off the dribble than catch & shoot with a defensive FG% of 23.3% on dribble jumpers (7/30) (75th percentile) and a defensive FG% of 42.9% on catch & shoot (12/28) (27th percentile).

Player Profile

Ethan Ward (#30)

Forward, 6'7, Jr

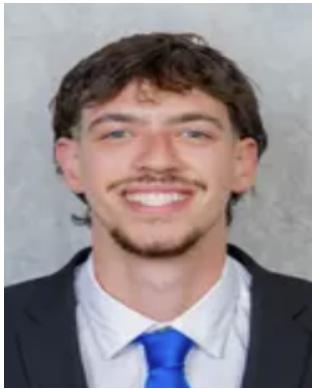

Key Stats

- 2.9 Offensive Rebounds Per Game (Leads Team)
- 48.0% Defensive FG% on Catch & Shoot (12/25) (13th percentile)
- 42.1% FG% on post-ups (8/19) (31 possessions) (55th percentile)
- 60.0% FG% on cuts (12/20) (24 possessions) (45th percentile)

Ethan is a work horse on the offensive glass as he is averaging 2.9 Offensive Rebounds Per Game so far this season so it important that he is always accounted for and boxed out. Ethan is strictly a back to the basket big on offense as he is not looking to shoot jump shots only attempting 3 on the season. In his 31 post-ups so far this season it has been a balanced split on where he has been on the floor with 11 being from the left block and 10 coming from both the middle and right block. When guarding him in the bpost dont let him get to deep and force him away from his right hand as he is shooting 66.7% (4/6) from the right block and 28.6% from the left block (2/7) and 33.3% from the middle (2/6). Defensively look to space the floor on him as he is very slow getting out to 3 point shooters with a defensive 3PT FG% of 50.0% (11/22).
